VOTE TO LET IN THE WOMEN

North Nebraska Methodists Unanimous on This Important Point.

CONFERENCE IN SESSION AT FREMONT

Large Representation from the Four Districts Included Presided Over by Bishop Newman-Reports from the Presiding Elders.

FREMONT, Oct. 2 .- (Special.)-The opening session of the North Nebraska Methodist conference was held at the Methodist church | the free sliver and Morton democrats of Otoe | nual report to the secretary of the interior. The scating capacity of the church was tested chair and making E. D. Marnell secretary, chairs were placed in the aisles. Rev. Dr. ticket; District clerk, M. S. Campbell; county district, presided. The service was opened Judge, W. J. Eaton; sheriff, J. M. Huberlee; by the singing of several good old Methodist superintendent of achools, N. St. Clair; surbymns. If there is anything in which a Methodist congregation excels it is in the singing, and the inspiring strains of those singing, and the inspiring strains of those well known hymns would awaken the better any good still left in him. After prayer by Rev. G. A. Brown of Buffalo, N. Y., Hon. G. G. Martin of Fremont delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the laymen. He paid a glowing tribute to the whole-souled, selfsacrificing character of the ltinerant clergy and to the power and influences of the principles of Methodism as exemplified by its clergy and laity, Rev. F. M. Sisson, pastor of the Fremont Methodist church, delivered an address of welcome on the part of the church. Mr. Sisson is a very bright and witty speaker and his address was frequently interrupted by laughter and applause.

After an anthem by the choir, "Praise Ye Jehovah," Rev. N. A. Martin of Grand Island delivered a response in behalf of the clergy. He said that there was a great deal of false sympathy expressed in behalf of the Methodist ltinerants, for in spite of debts not their own, for the clergy doesn't run in debt, disinstances of men mortgaging their small properties to raise money to advance the cause of Christ. The clergy is here to work for the advancement of Methodism in Ne-braska, and not to have a good time, but the two always go together. LAYMEN THE PIONEERS.

Hon. J. A. Erhardt of Stanton delivered the response on behalf of the laymen in a few well chosen words. He said that the laymen were now the real pioneers of Methodism and were honestly and faithfully doing the work assigned to them.

Nearly all the parishes in the four districts constituting the conference are represented and the sessions of the conference will be full

The business session of the conference was opened this morning by the celebration of the sacrament of the holy communion, Bishop J. P. Newman officiating. At the close of communion Bishop Newman called the conference to order. The roll call showed a good representation of the clergymen present. Rev. D. C. Winship of Dakota City was chosen secretary and Revs. H. A. Barton and C. N. Dawson of Comba and N. and C. N. Dawson of Omaha and N. A. Mar-tin of Grand Island assistants. Rev. C. M. Griffith of Niobrara treasurer and Revs. R. J. Millard of Creighton and G. H. McAdam of Grand Island assistants. Rev. J. B. Priest of Omaha was chosen statistical secretary.

After the appointment of a large number of committees on the various departments of church work, Dr. J. W. Shank of Omaha addressed the conference in regard to the church paper, the Omaha Christian Advocate. Rev. Dr. Hard of Philadelphia presented the claims and needs of the Church Extension society and made a brief summary of its work in the conference district, and Dr. S. H. Pye of St. Louis made a similar address in behalf of the Methodist Book Concern. IN FAVOR OF WOMEN.

vote was then taken on what is known among Methodist people as the Hamilton amendment, which is that the term delegates as used in the Book of Discipline be construed to mean males only. The proposed amendment was defeated by a vote of none in the affirmative and sixty-four in the negative. The question of whether women should be admitted to the general conference then came before the conference and the proposition to admit women to the general conference on equal women to the general conference on equal terms with men was carried by a unanimous vote. The conference was very enthusias-tic over the result, and it is safe to predict that the North Nebraska conference will, as soon as the canons of the church will permit have a woman representative or representa-tives in the next meeting.

The proposed amendment to increase the membership in the general conference then came up for action. At the present time the ratio of representation is one delegate to every sevenly-five communicants. The amendment was to make it one to forty-five. The conference was not quite as unanimous on this as on the woman question. Several of the clergy were of the opinion that it would make the general conference an unwieldy body, and that the present number could do the work as well. The proposed amendment, however, carried by a vote of fifty-five in the affirmative and six in the negative.

PRESIDING ELDERS REPORT. The larger part of the morning's sessio was taken with hearing the reports of the presiding elders or sub-bishops of the four districts, Rev. J. B. Maxfield of Omaha for the Omaha district, Rev. D. Marquett, D. D. of Grand Island, for the Grand Island distriet, Rev. H. Hodgetts, D. D., of Norfolk for the Norfolk district and Rev. O. K. Tyndall of Neligh, for the Neligh district

These reports were quite lengthy and gave full statements of the condition and progress of church work in the different parishes. In nearly all parishes the work of the church during the past year was reported as being successful. In the Grand Island district, where the drouth has been severe, there has been gratifying progress. Many new churches have been erected throughout the conference district. Work has been commenced on others; and the temporal affairs of churches are in good shape, everything be-ing considered. Dr. J. B. Maxfield of the Omaha district reported 1,300 conversions in his district during the past year. The First church of Omaha, Trinity, Hanscom Park and Seward Street church each ask Park and Seward Street church each ask for the return of their present pastors. The report of Dr. Hodgetts of the Norfolk dis-trict showed especial prog ess in the financial affairs of the district, and a large number of

A great part of the work of the conference is done in committees. The Fremont Methodist church has secured a vacant house opposite the church for the use of the various committees. The prayer meeting room of the church and the choir loft are also used for that purpose. The lay conference session will be held at the Congressional church gational church

Plattsmouth People Praise The Bee PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 2 .- (Special.)-The praise and patronage of The Omaha Bee has been steadily on the increase since it commenced to arrive here in time for breakfast. The Bee representative in this city took occasion to inquire of several leading business men of this city concerning The Bee, and the result was in substance: "There is no question that The Omaha Bee is the only thorough metropolitan paper west of the Mississippi river," or as a young democratic ex-official said: "The Omaha Bee is 100 per cent the best paper west of Chicago."

Judge Chapman's Friends Rejoice. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 2 .- (Special.)-All Plattsmouth rejoiced with one accord last night on receipt of the announcement that Judge Samuel M. Chapman had secured the nomination for re-election to the bench in this district.

An attempt was made last night to burn the home of Mrs. William Webb on North Sixth street in this city, by placing a large bunch of waste saturated with oil under the back steps, which was set on fire. It went out of its own second. No one discovered the fire till late this morning.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Catholic hurch in this city occurred the marriage of New Suggestions Offered by Commissione John Bajeck, a eigar maker, to Miss Elizabe: M. Cloidt. Both parties were born and raise

EXTENT OF THE BEATRICE STEAL

Expert Declares that Thousands Were Taken from the Water Fund.
BEATRICE, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Expert
Fowler made a report to the city council last evening of his work upon the city's books. His report shows that bogus warrants have been issued to the amount of $11,500, of which between $7,000 and $8,000 has been paid, the balance being still outstanding. All of the warrants, with the exception of about $2,000, were drawn upon the water fund. The investigation covers the time from January 1, 1890, up to August 21, 1895, the latter being the date of the discovery of the crookedness and the arrest of City Clerk Phillips and Water Commissioner Hawkins.

A little boy named Fell was badly injured last evening by being run into on Court street, one of the shafts of the buggy running into the lad striking him in the forehead, inflicting an ugly wound, and the back of his head was badly bruised when it struck upon the naving. Savara estimber were apon the paving. Several stitches were re quired to close up the wound in the forehead.

AL BEEMER'S GREAT SCHEME. Wants to Hold Up the State for Feeding the Convicts. LINCOLN, Oct. 2 .- (Special Telegram.)-The raid by Contractor Bremer and the Board of Public Lands and Buildings on the $100,000 penitentiary fund has commenced. Tucked away in a pigeon hole in the deak of Land Commissioner Russell is a voucher drawn by Mr. Beemer for $4,000 for "boarding the victs of the penitentiary" since he received his contract at the rate of 40 cents per day per capits. The voucher lacks only the signature of Secretary of State Piper to make it a valid document, and one on which State Auditor Moore must draw a warrant. This is in spite of the statement of Beemer that he would pay back all of the 40 cents per day per capita which he did not use. He has during the time he has been contractor expended nothing for board of the convicts. All this has been don by Warden Leidigh. So soon as Governor Holcomb learned of the matter he had an interview with the state auditor. The result of this was that the latter held another interview with Con-tractor Becmer, at the conclusion of which it was decided to temporarily suspend further efforts to recure a warrant on the voucher which, it is now claimed, has been signed by the secretary of state.

Wedding Anniversary Celebration. HASTINGS, Oct. 2 .- (Special.) -- Monday evening about 8 p. m. there was a rap at the door of Walter Churchill's residence, corner of Sixth street and Colorado avenue, and as Walter opened the door a large number of guests were ushered in. The reason was the twelfth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Churchill, and also that they are about to remove from the city, and their feeds to remove from the city, and their friends desired to show their appreciation of having as good neighbors as Mr. and Mrs. Church-hill by passing a pleasant evening with them. Several who were expected to be in attendance sent in regrets, but among those who were present were. Play and Mrs. who were present were: Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Serf, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. PACIFIC RELIEF

Wade Hampton.

Thinks the Thurman Act Should Be Amended in Several Important Particulars for the Protection of the Government.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 .- Wade Hampton mmissioner of rallroads, has made his anlast evening. The chancel was decorated county, and today the united brethren in He says, in part: "In the hard times it with palms and cut flowers and back of the democracy held their convention in the opera appears that the gross receipts of the Union altar a large silk flag was tastefully draped. house. After placing Harry Boydston in the Pacific system were reduced $1,000,000 a month below the normal." The commissioner to the utmost, the pews were all filled and they placed in nomination the following says that a cast-iron rule as to payments cannot be observed, and thinks there should J. B. Maxfield, presiding elder of the Omaha clerk, E. R. Haas; treasurer, J. P. Hill; be a flexible adjustment of annual payments to correspond with diminished earnings. He thinks that the Thurman act will be found to justify the expectation of its framers, if the following amendments are made:

"1. To embrace within its provisions all Pacific roads which have received from the United States a loan of its bonds in aid of onstruction

"2. To provide that 50 per cent instead of 5 per cent of the net earnings be retained. "3. To extend the debt until it shall have discharged as provided.

"4. Further, to provide that if any of the companies abandon any portion of the subsidized lines or divert their business from a subsidized to an unsubsidized road the com-pany shall in such cases be required to trans-fer the lien and condition which attached to the old or subsidized line to the new and unsubsidized line in order that the rights and interests of the United States may be pro-tected."

lation will hasten the payment of the company's indebtedness, as it is anxious to be freed from governmental supervision.
The commissioner also renews his recom-

The commissioner believes that such legis-mendation relative to a revised system of accounting by the Pacific roads. If the recommendations previously made, that the Thurman act be amended, be not accepted as an alternative, he recommends that a commission be appointed by the presi-dent to settle the indebtedness of the bond-aided railroads.

The commissioner recommends that the order of the Treasury department, which directs that compensation for services ren-dered the government by the non-aided and leased lines of the Union Pacific company be paid to the receivers of the roads in cash, and not retained in the treasury, as formerly.

IMPROVEMENT IN CONDITIONS. The commissioner refers to the fact tha here has been great improvement in condi tions since his annual report, and that there is an increase of earnings of roads under his supervision. He reviews the financial condition of the Union and Central Pacific railroads, and says the debt of the Union Pacific to the government is $53,005,063, with a total liability of $187,873,590; the debt of the Central Pacific P tral Pacific to the United States is $57,734. 183. With a total liability of $185,033,682. The commissioner says that the bonds of the Central Pacific, which fell due on January 16, 1895, were to have been paid by the company, but as a matter of fact, were paid out of the general funds of the United States treasury. He said that this payment may be reimbursed from the sale of bonds in the sinking fund, but there is not sufficient market for the sale of such bonds to cancel one tenth part of the debt. The properties of the The commissioner reviews the attempt a Pacific railroad legislation in the last con gress, and says: "The results of the past two years have shown that during a period of mpossible for the Union Pacific company to neet the annual fixed charges, and other necessary and inevitable expenses, and in addition such an amount as would be required to discharge the debt of the United States in fifty years with 3 per cent interest, as proposed in the Reilly bill, or even 2 per cent, which the representatives of the company were understood to be willing to accept Some regard should be had for such condiions as have existed, and which are likely to arise again.

RECEIVERS SUMMARILY REMOVED.

Judge Hanford Refuses to Accept SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—Judge Hanford refused today to accept the resignations of the receivers of the Northern Pacific and removed them be cause of failure to comply with his order directing them to give an accounting of their past acts and to answer the charges of Brayton Ives. Andrew F. Burleigh was appointed as receiver for the lines in Washington. The judge fixed Burleigh's bond at $300,000, and directed him to take charge of the com-pany's affairs at once. When the court con-vened Judge Hanford remarked that the old receivers had been directed to file with this court new bonds, to give an accounting of their past acts and to answer charges which had been preferred against them by Braytor Ives as president of the Northern Pacific

Assistant General Counsel Bunn of St. Paul grose and said that they had not been, and he was authorized to say that they would

The court then said that he would not accept their resignations, but would remove them and appoint Burleigh receiver. President Brayton Ives filed a new and sensational affidavit this morning, charging that Henry Villard, a month before the Northern Pacific road was placed in the hands of a receiver, had authorized his personal counsel to take steps to place it in the hands of receivers, and had given it out that Henry C. Paine would be one of them.

The Farmers Loan and Trust company, as trustee of the first mortgage bonds, has filed its answer in the receivership case, de-nying the alleged Villard influence in the appointment of the old receivers, and de-nying the alleged conference between Oakes, Villard, Colby, Hoyt, Cromwell and Roiston, though conceding that Roiston may have had other interviews with Oakes, Colby and Cromwell. The answer denies any knowledge of Gustav Ulbricht prior to the appointment of Oakes, and pronounces absolutely false the allegation that Oakes appealed to Rolston or Villard to insist on his appointment as re-ceiver. It concedes that President Rolston nominated him for the receivership, but denies that he did so from personal or busi-ness interests. It suggests that the re-ceivers, in justice to themselves and the company, should either in Wisconsin or here answer the charges made against them. answer the charges made against them.

In the afternoon Burleigh qualified by filing a $300,000 bond with Governor John H. McGraw, M. McDougall, S. L. Crawford, Jacob Furth, A. B. Stewart, C. J. Smith and H. C.

Henry, sureties. His order of appointment was made absolute and other orders were signed, including orders removing the re-ceivers, and admitting the second and third mortgage bondholders to become parties to the suit. Burleigh left for Portland, Ore., on the 5 o'clock train. He announced before leav-ing that C. W. Dickinson, assistant general superintendent under the old receivers, would be his general manager. The appointment will be followed by application along the line and Burleigh will appear in the United States
